

Corruption

For whom you are doing corruption? For yourself! For your wife! For your Kids!

Do you ask them, "They really need money"? If you have access of money what will they be?

Go and look at the bars at 12:00a.m. You will find rich brats in poor condition. Do you want your child be like that?

Your wife wants to share some of the happy moments with you. But you do not have that. You know in that case you are very poor as you are not giving what she wants from you.

After shaking hand with corruption, are you happy? Do you have a proper sleep?
